

Thank you for agreeing to be a One Love facilitator! We are SO excited that you are stepping up and want to teach other about healthy relationships. We have a few things we would like you to review and read through and be aware of as you embark on your facilitator training. Our goal is to ensure that you have a great experience as a facilitator. We also want your participants to feel comfortable and get the most out of your workshops. Again, on behalf of One Love, thank you for joining our movement!

Facilitator Terms:

SCREENING OF THE FILM

The film should never be screened or distributed without the other pieces of the Escalation workshop. While the film is compelling, its educational power comes from its place at the center of the workshop. The guided discussion is critical to student learning, and must always be included. The activation piece is crucial, as it encourages students to take action in a movement for social change.

TRAINING FOR THE WORKSHOP

Workshop Facilitators must be trained by a member of One Love's staff. Because the subject matter discussed in the workshop is sensitive, it's critical to have well-trained facilitators guiding the discussion.

USER AGREEMENT FOR LOCAL SUPPORT

User agrees to provide a list of local resources to be contacted by workshop participants if they need support. Additionally, because Escalation might be a trigger for someone participating, it is helpful to have a trained counselor available to workshop participants during and/or immediately after a workshop is conducted.

FACILITATOR IN GOOD STANDING

As a trained facilitator in the escalation workshop we assume that you are a member in good standing at your school, in your community or anywhere else that it would be important. It is crucial that you can establish trust and create a safe environment with your workshop participants. By agreeing to our guidelines One Love expects you are not currently under any type of investigation and you carry yourself in a respectable manner and promote healthy relationships. If you are unclear of what "good standing" is please reach out to One Love prior to your participation in the facilitator training and we will walk you through this.
